

Consumer Protection: The Demise and Return (?) of the "Nanny State"

First Annual Manne Law & Economics Conference

Speaking Engagement

September 30, 2011

Washington, DC

Arlington, VA

On September 30, 2011, partner William C. MacLeod and of counsel Jodie Z. Bernstein participated in the First Annual Manne Law & Economics Conference, Lessons Since the Reagan Revolution at the FTC: 30-Year Perspective on Competition and Consumer Policies, at the George Mason University Law & Economics Center. Ms. Bernstein spoke and Mr. MacLeod moderated the panel, "Consumer Protection: The Demise and Return (?) of the 'Nanny State.'"

Click here for more information.

Related Services

Advertising and Marketing

State Attorneys General