

Corporate Ethical Responsibility Within the Material Supply Chain

Design for Freedom Summit

Speaking Engagement

March 31 – 25, 2022 from 10:30 am to 11:30 am (EDT)
Washington, DC

Special Counsel Jennifer McCadney joined a panel discussion at the Design for Freedom Summit to discuss the removal of forced labor from the global materials supply chain. Discussion topics included corporate ethical responsibility and the government policies that impact forced labor in the global building materials supply chain, as well as emerging approaches to address this issue

Related Services

Manufacturing

Customs

International Trade

Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG)

Government Relations and Public Policy

Trade Policy