

Customs Bonding Process: Bonding and Enforcement of Bonds

2013 International Trade Update

Speaking Engagement

March 1, 2013

Washington, DC

On March 1, 2013, partner Michael J. Coursey spoke at the Georgetown Law 2013 International Trade Update. The agenda concerned itself with the past year in international trade, analyzing lessons learned and pitfalls avoided, and also predictions for 2013. Mr. Coursey was a panelist during the session, "Customs Bonding Process: Bonding and Enforcement of Bonds," which examined what bonds are and explained why bonds are required. It explored issues being litigated now and expanded upon the rationale behind that litigation. Kelley Drye & Warren is an annual sponsor of the Georgetown Law International Trade Update.

To read Mr. Coursey's white paper, click on the link below.

Related Services

International Trade

Customs