

Data Breach Regulations: Staying Nimble in an Evolving World

Jennifer Rodden Wainwright

November 21, 2025

Senior Associate Jennifer Rodden Wainwright authored "Data Breach Regulations: Staying Nimble in an Evolving World" for the November 2025 issue of Independent Communications News.

The article covers FCC rules related to data breaches and the evolving regulatory landscape for communications providers.

"As laws and regulations at the federal and state level evolve to improve data security protections and reduce harms when data breaches occur, communications providers have to evaluate how such changes affect them and develop policies and practices to adhere to applicable requirements."

Read the full article here.