

Debtwire Mentions Kelley Drye's Representation of Ad Hoc Committee of RadioShack Landlords

August 22, 2014

Debtwire reports that "an ad hoc group of RadioShack landlords has engaged Kelley Drye as legal counsel ... as the retailer gears up for a potential restructuring." The article discusses major developments in recent months for the troubled retailer, including those related to declining financial performance and a possible "liquidity crisis by early next year."

The Kelley Drye team includes partners James S. Carr and Robert L LeHane.
