

Deciphering the Broadband Stimulus Package: Finding Your Opportunities

Telephony Online Webinar

Speaking Engagement

April 1, 2009

Partner Thomas W. Cohen presented a Telephony Online webinar, "Deciphering the Broadband Stimulus Package: Finding Your Opportunities." The webinar, which was sponsored by Telco Systems, provided an update on the latest information regarding how companies can capitalize on the broadband stimulus package. Topics of discussion included the kinds of projects that are likely to be funded, as well as the process involved in obtaining funding.

Following the webinar, Telephony Online published an article titled, "Broadband Stimulus Hopefuls Get Application Advice: Hurry," which summarized the information presented by Mr. Cohen in the webinar.
