

logo

Do You Play to Play? Practical & Ethical Issues Your Clients Need To Know To Protect Themselves From Government Prosecution

New York City Bar CLE Event

Speaking Engagement

June 8, 2010

Kelley Drye attorney David E. Frulla participated in a CLE Event titled "Do You Play to Play? Practical & Ethical Issues Your Clients Need To Know To Protect Themselves From Government Prosecution." Mr. Frulla is a faculty member of the event. The program discussed a range of requirements applicable to companies regarding contacts with federal, state, county, and city government officials and employees. The presentation touched on new rules and requirements applicable to the financial and pharmaceutical industries, in particular the often-strict limits, if not prohibitions, on certain gifts and political contributions.

The New York City Bar hosted the event on June 08, 2010 from 6:00 pm to 9:00 pm. The event was held at 42 West 44th Street in New York. Members of the New York City Bar Association are eligible to receive discounted registration rates. Member registration for the live program costs $235. For non-member, the fee is $345. The live program included materials. Walk-in registration is $260 for members and $375 for non-members, materials also included.

Please see attached flyer for registration information or to register by phone, call 212.382.6663 or fax 212.869.4451.