

Drafting Arbitration Clauses: Strategies to Maximize Efficiency and Avoid Court Challenges

Connecticut Law Tribune's In-House Counsel CLE

Speaking Engagement

March 29, 2012 from 8:00 am to 4:00 pm (EDT)

New York

Stamford Yacht Club
97 Ocean Drive West
Stamford,
CT 06902

On March 29, 2012, partners Robert E. Crotty and Philip D. Robben participated in the Connecticut Law Tribune's In-House Counsel CLE Lecture Series. Mr. Crotty and Mr. Robben gave a presentation titled, "Drafting Arbitration Clauses: Strategies to Maximize Efficiency and Avoid Court Challenges." The topics included: an update on recent Supreme Court decisions concerning agreements to arbitrate; why using "model" arbitration clauses or other cut-and-paste approaches can damage your position in a dispute; and how to evaluate, in both domestic and international circumstances, options such as venue, language, choice of law, pre-arbitration resolution, choosing arbitrators, procedural rules, preliminary relief, dispositive motions, discovery, sanctions and enforcement of awards.

Related Services

Litigation

International Arbitration