Partner Eric McClafferty participated in the Stafford CLE webinar "Emerging Global Markets and Risk-Based Due Diligence." Mr. McClafferty and the rest of the panel discussed the challenges facing companies and their counsel when they are doing or considering doing business in emerging markets, such as the BRIC countries. They discussed the hurdles involved in conducting due diligence, identifying red flags, analyzing potential risks, and interpreting the information gathered, and offered guidance for overcoming those hurdles and ensuring compliance.
