

Everyday Law for Community Empowerment: What You Need to Know to Answer Common Legal Problems in the AANHPI Community | Part 2: Housing, Trusts and Estates, and Family Law

Speaking Engagement

September 27, 2025

New York

Associate Justin Lee will moderate the panel “Everyday Law for Community Empowerment: What You Need to Know to Answer Common Legal Problems in the AANHPI Community | Part 2: Housing, Trusts and Estates, and Family Law” at the Asian American Bar Association of New York’s (AABANY) 2025 Fall Conference.

The session will cover housing challenges, family planning considerations, and property division in divorce. Panelists will provide attorneys with practical tools to better advise clients on landlord-tenant disputes, intergenerational property transfers, and divorce-related property issues.

Register here.

Related Services

Litigation