

FCC Releases Public Notices to Further Implement CALEA

Chip Yorkgitis

January 17, 2007

The Federal Communications Commission recently released three Public Notices further implementing the Communications Assistance for Law Enforcement Act ("CALEA") by requiring three filings in the next three months: System Security and Integrity (SSI) Plans; Compliance Monitoring Report; and, Extension Petitions. This advisory provides more information about these filings.