

Fourteen Kelley Drye Partners Author Chapters in New Edition of Business and Commercial Litigation in Federal Courts

January 25, 2022

Kelley Drye lawyers have made significant contributions to the new Fifth Edition of Business and Commercial Litigation in Federal Courts, which Thomson Reuters and the American Bar Association Section of Litigation published in December 2021. The prior editions of this treatise have been critically acclaimed in more than 380 favorable book reviews published in legal newspapers and bar journals throughout the United States.

Business and Commercial Litigation in Federal Courts provides guidance on all phases and aspects of litigation, including investigation, case evaluation, parties, pleadings, motions, discovery, trials, appeals, settlement, enforcement of judgments, damages and other remedies, ADR, practice management, and professional development. The treatise offers a self-contained library of procedure, trial advocacy, substantive law, strategic considerations, and advice.

Among the 373 principal authors of this treatise are 32 distinguished judges and many of the best-known commercial litigators in the United States. Partner Robert Haig is the Editor-in-Chief, and fourteen Kelley Drye partners wrote chapters with assistance from a number of associates.
