

Fox News Interviews Partner Lauri A. Mazzuchetti About Legal Liability Involving Fight at MetLife Stadium

October 21, 2013

Partner Lauri A. Mazzuchetti was interviewed during the Fox News program, Your World Cavuto, regarding the legal responsibility of MetLife stadium when a fight was caught on camera after a Jets vs. Patriots game. Ms. Mazzuchetti argued that from the 30 second clip it is impossible to determine if the stadium was properly prepared with enough security officials in place to deal with the crowd. Additionally, if alcohol was involved in the incident, the law limits liability and the stadium cannot be held legally responsible.
