

Gonzalo Mon Quoted on "Click to Cancel" Bills in Congress

January 28, 2026

Partner Gonzalo Mon was quoted in "'Click to Cancel' Bills in Congress Target Consumer Subscriptions That Are Hard to Ditch" for CNBC. The article covers legislative attempts in Congress to create a federal "click to cancel" rule. A House bill, the Unsubscribe Act, was introduced in mid-January as a companion to a Senate measure proposed in July 2025. These efforts are a part of a trend among in the states to curb hard to cancel subscriptions.

"This does seem to be a bipartisan issue, and a lot of regulators are concerned about consumers getting into subscriptions without knowing all the details," said Gonzalo.

Read the full article here.