

Government Litigation: The Role of State Attorneys General

Contemporary Issues in Complex Litigation

Speaking Engagement

April 3, 2025 from 1:30 pm to 2:45 pm (CDT)

State Attorneys General practice group chair Paul Singer will present "Government Litigation: The Role of State Attorneys General" at the Contemporary Issues in Complex Litigation hosted by Northwestern University Pritzker School of Law.

This conference gathers judges, academics, and practitioners from across the country to address the critical legal, ethical, financial, and political issues that affect high-profile litigation. During this event, attendees will have the opportunity to hear the perspectives of judges, law professors, and practicing litigators, better understand the issues judges and litigators face and the decisions they make, and learn how to incorporate various best practices into the practice of complex litigation.

More information about the conference may be found here. This event is complimentary and open to the general public.
