Fresh off a loss in the United States Supreme Court in AMG Capital Management v. FTC, the Commission needs to change its enforcement action playbook—at least for now.

In recent months, the FTC has been lobbying Congress to confirm, and even expand its authority under Section 13(b). This legal victory could be short-lived.

Hear from experts, including partner John Villafranco, as they discuss how the FTC is adjusting to the ruling and its impact on current legal action in the industry.
