

How to Reduce Corporate Litigation Costs and Still Win Your Case

Atlantic Legal Foundation and the New York City Bar Association's CLE Program

Speaking Engagement

October 30, 2008

Partner Robert L. Haig moderated the Atlantic Legal Foundation and the New York City Bar Association's day long CLE program, "How to Reduce Corporate Litigation Costs and Still Win Your Case" held at the City Bar on October 30, 2008. Other speakers included 12 prominent general counsel of major corporations as well as five federal and state judges. During a series of fast-paced, interactive panel discussions, the panelists responded to questions from the moderator. The speakers focused on strategies and practical advice for maximizing the cost-effectiveness and productivity of corporate litigation.

Related Services

Litigation