

Implementing A Robust Global Compliance Program for Nuclear Products, Services and Technology that Will Sustain Multi-Agency Scrutiny

2nd Advanced Summit on Complying with Nuclear Export Controls

Speaking Engagement

March 27, 2012

Washington, DC

Washington DC

On March 27, 2012, partner Eric McClafferty presented at the 2nd Advanced Summit on Complying with Nuclear Export Controls in Washington DC. In his session, "Implementing A Robust Global Compliance Program for Nuclear Products, Services and Technology that Will Sustain Multi-Agency Scrutiny," Mr. McClafferty discussed proven practices in managing risk, internal compliance assessments and remedies for weaknesses, securing senior management buy-in for updating technology controls, as well as data procedure for overseas offices.

For more information, click here.

Related Services

International Trade