

India Business Law Journal Lists Kelley Drye as Leading Foreign Law Firm

June 16, 2016

For the third consecutive year in a row, Kelley Drye has been selected by The India Business Law Journal as one of the top international law firms for India related work.

Kelley Drye's India Practice represents Indian businesses in their U.S. dealings and U.S. companies in their Indian business activities. The practice has been recognized as a "significant player" in the journal's ranking which showcases India-related achievements and activities of law firms around the world. The journal notes that that Kelley Drye has a healthy roster of clients with interests in India. Partner Deepak Nambiar are noted as the firm's principal India contacts.

The IBLJ survey compared more than 600 law firms from every continent that have documented deals and matters with an Indian element in the past 12 months.