

Election Implications for Tariffs, Trade & Other Federal Policies

2025 International Sweetener Colloquium

Speaking Engagement

February 25, 2025

Washington, DC

Palm Springs, CA

Partner Paul Rosenthal will be delivering the keynote presentation, "Election Implications for Tariffs, Trade & Other Federal Policies," at the 2025 International Sweetener Colloquium in Palm Springs, California. His presentation will detail the new administration's priority changes in the New Year.

Co-hosted by the Sweetener Users Association and the International Dairy Foods Association, the International Sweetener Colloquium provides a unique opportunity for key players from all sectors to discuss the most pressing issues facing the global sweetener industry. Attendees will be given the opportunity to participate in content-rich sessions with presentations from a wide range of speakers, addressing the latest challenges and opportunities facing the industry. Topics will cover everything from government regulation and political outlook to current research findings and market trends.

Register here.

Related Services

International Trade

Trade Policy

Trump 2.0 Insights and Analysis