

Isabelle Faber

Associate

ifaber@kelleydrye.com

New York
(212) 808-5044

About

Isabelle Faber supports clients in protecting and strengthening their brands through trademark prosecution and enforcement. She assists with trademark portfolio management and helps enforce clients' rights in cases of potential infringement. She works with businesses across a range of industries, with a focus on retail, fashion, and technology to navigate the full lifecycle of trademark protection.

Before joining the firm, Isabelle was a judicial intern for the Honorable James E. d'Auguste in New York Supreme Court, New York County, Civil Court of the City of New York.

Related Services

Commercial Litigation
Consumer Class Action Defense
Fashion and Retail
Intellectual Property
Litigation
Trademark and Copyright Litigation
Trademark and Copyright Prosecution

Education

Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law, J.D.

- cum laude
- Cardozo Law Review, articles editor

Tulane University, B.A.

- cum laude
- Political Science

Admissions

New York

Courts

U.S. Court of Appeals-Second Circuit