About

Jane Jablons, a veteran corporate counselor, is the former chair of Kelley Drye's Mergers and Acquisitions practice group. She focused her practice on corporate finance, with concentrations in mergers and acquisitions, venture capital and emerging growth companies.

Jane represented venture capital funds, institutional investors, pension plans, and investment groups and their principals in private placements of equity and debt. She provided advice to these clients with respect to securities laws issues, investment matters, internal structural concerns, venture fund formation, and other general corporate issues.

She is currently a life partner in the firm.
