

John J. Lynagh

Retired Partner

jlynagh@kelleydrye.com

New York
(212) 808-7800

About

John Lynagh's practice focused on health care issues and health care organizations. Over the course of his career he provided clients general corporate advice with respect to organization and governance of health care corporations, establishment of holding companies and networking arrangements and various managed care, affiliation, joint venture and other contractual arrangements involving health care entities. He also represented health care entities in numerous transactional matters.

He is currently a life partner in the firm.

Education

Harvard Law School, J.D.
Fordham University, B.A.

Admissions

New York