

Join Kelley Drye at the 2020 INCOMPAS Show

September 9, 2020

The 2020 election is likely to bring changes to the FCC, regardless of which party wins the presidential election. What process and substantive changes will the next administration bring to the FCC? Join Partners John Heitmann and Steve Augustino on September 14 at the 2020 INCOMPAS Show for a discussion of what to expect at the FCC as we look toward 2021. They will cover the “digital divide,” 5G deployment, privacy, and other issues that will be affected by the outcome of the election.

Click here for more information on this and other sessions at the virtual conference.