

Kelley Drye Adds LA Office, Entertainment and Media Capabilities

April 7, 2011

We are pleased to announce that Kelley Drye is expanding its national presence by merging with White O'Connor Fink & Brenner LLP, a highly respected Los Angeles litigation firm best known for its success in complex business and entertainment industry litigation.

This merger returns Kelley Drye to California and adds a significant new expertise in the entertainment and media industry. White O'Connor's attorneys strengthen Kelley Drye's capabilities in several other key practice areas and bring a well-established record of trial victories. They have defended and prosecuted a wide range of cases, including entertainment, First Amendment, insurance recovery, media-related torts, real estate, copyright, trademark, antitrust, class actions, and other complicated commercial disputes.

To learn more, see our press release and review the practice group description on our website.