

Kelley Drye Attorneys Recognized in Legal Services NYC 2012 Honor Roll

December 1, 2012

Partner Robert E. Crotty was recognized on Legal Services NYC Honor Roll in their 2012 Annual Report. He contributed hours of pro bono assistance for low-income people struggling with poverty, health issues and educational needs.

Legal Services NYC is the largest civil legal services provider in the country, with deep roots in all of the communities they serve. For over 40 years they have provided civil legal services that help people meet their essential needs and challenged systemic injustices that keep them poor. They collaborate with public-interest providers, pro bono attorneys, courts, community organizations, and government agencies to bring lasting and effective change.
