

Kelley Drye Earns New Practice Ranking in Chambers USA 2026 for State Attorneys General

June 4, 2026

Kelley Drye & Warren LLP is pleased to announce that the firm has received a new practice area ranking by Chambers USA 2026 for State Attorneys General (Nationwide). This marks the first time the firm has been ranked in this category, reflecting its depth of experience representing clients in investigations, enforcement actions, and regulatory proceedings led by state attorneys general across the country.

Partner Paul Singer is ranked Band Two by Chambers USA 2026 for State Attorneys General (Nationwide), up from Band Three in 2025. His improved ranking reflects his continued leadership in advising clients facing multi-state attorney general investigations and enforcement.

Special Counsel Abigail Stempson has received a new ranking of Up & Coming by Chambers USA 2026 for State Attorneys General (Nationwide), recognizing her emerging prominence in state regulatory defense and advocacy.

Kelley Drye's State Attorneys General practice advises clients across industries on responding to state attorney general investigations, consumer protection enforcement actions, multi-state settlements, and regulatory advocacy at the state level.

Click here for more information about Kelley Drye's State Attorneys General practice. To learn more about the firm's full Chambers USA 2026 results, click here.