

Kelley Drye Featured in Practising Law Institute's In-House Insights

March 7, 2008

Kelley Drye & Warren is featured in the Practising Law Institute's In-House Insights newsletter regarding its joint summer program with the law department of JPMorgan Chase. This program is designed to help build a 'pipeline' of attorneys from diverse backgrounds who are interested in financial services law. This program provides students with invaluable experience and helps Kelley Drye train talented future lawyers.
