

Kelley Drye Named 2008 "Go-To" Law Firm by Corporate Counsel Magazine

January 31, 2008

Corporate Counsel magazine has named Kelley Drye & Warren LLP in its 2008 "Go-To" List of Law Firms. Kelley Drye was selected for this honor by some of its top clients for the firm's intellectual property, labor and employment, litigation and corporate practices.

The publication sent surveys to the general counsel of the top 500 companies and conducted research using resources including public records, leading publications and well-respected databases.

The "Go To" List, published in January 2008, includes "firms used most often" and firms that "handled the most important cases in the previous year."
