

Kelley Drye Names Partner and Special Counsel

July 1, 2011

Kelley Drye & Warren LLP is pleased to announce the election of one partner, effective July 1, 2011.

"We are very proud of our colleagues, whose talents in areas including antitrust, advertising and marketing, government relations and employee benefits demonstrate our commitment to comprehensively assisting our clients in the best way possible. We are confident that our new partner will provide professional leadership in a diversity of practices, both within our firm and in the greater legal community," said Firm Chairman John M. Callagy.

One associate was named special counsel, as of July 1:

Andrew H. Lee is a member of the Tax practice group in the New York office. His practice includes counseling on tax issues of mergers and acquisitions, affiliated groups of corporations, debt financing, cross-border transactions and transfer pricing. Mr. Lee also represents taxpayers in controversies involving the IRS and state and local tax authorities. Mr. Lee regularly provides advice concerning the state and local taxation of telecommunications service providers. He previously served as a senior attorney with the Office of Chief Counsel of the Internal Revenue Service. Mr. Lee received his LL.M. in taxation from New York University School of Law (1994), his J.D. from New York University School of Law (1993), and his A.B. from Brown University (1989).
