August 12, 2026

Kelley Drye Partner Andrea Calvaruso, chair of the firm's Trademark and Copyright practice, has been recognized as a 2026 BTI Client Service All-Star by The BTI Consulting Group.

Now in its 25th year, BTI Consulting Group's annual Client Service All-Stars list identifies attorneys who deliver incomparable levels of client service excellence. BTI Client Service All-Stars are identified by corporate legal decision makers by name and in an unprompted manner as delivering the absolute best client service. No attorney can self-nominate, self-refer, or pay to be included in the report.

According to Michael B. Rynowecer, president of BTI Consulting Group, the All-Stars "demonstrate an unrelenting pursuit to find what best fulfills clients' needs. These attorneys have an unquenchable thirst to understand their clients better than all other attorneys, can simplify even the most complex of legal matters, and are unwavering in their dedication to clients."

Andrea combines a business lawyer's pragmatism, a litigator's perspective, and an immersive understanding of IP law to help a range of clients develop, manage, leverage, and enforce their trademark and copyright rights in the United States and abroad. With a practice that spans litigation, transactional agreements, and portfolio management, Andrea represents clients across the retail, fashion, entertainment, and consumer products industries. She is also the host and organizer of Kelley Drye's Fashion and Retail Law Summit, an annual gathering of industry executives and in-house counsel from many of the world's best-known brands.
