

Kelley Drye Represents Access Integrated Technologies in Acquisition of Boeing Unit

April 28, 2004

Kelley Drye represented Access Integrated Technologies in the consummated acquisition of the assets of Boeing Digital Cinema, a business unit of Boeing Integrated Defense Systems, a unit of The Boeing Company. The primary assets acquired by AccessIT included Boeing's base of digital projection systems, which are installed in various cinemas throughout the United States, digital projectors, spares, and associated content servers and satellite transmission equipment.