

Kelley Drye San Francisco Office Featured in Law360 Pulse

March 17, 2026

Kelley Drye's newly opened San Francisco office, the first in the city and third location in California, was featured in Law360 Pulse. Currently staffed by Partner Kate Black and Special Counsel Céline Guillou, the office is situated in the city's financial district.

Managing Partner Dana Rosenfeld was quoted saying, "The office strengthens our footprint in the state alongside our Los Angeles and San Diego locations and allows us to be closer to many of the technology and innovation-driven companies we work with. It's a natural extension of our work with clients across the region and reflects where we see continued opportunity."

Read the full article here. Subscription required.