

Kelley Drye Team Files Unfair Trade Case on Behalf of US Aluminum Industry

October 1, 2020

Numerous media outlets including Law360, Fox and Steelguru have reported that, on behalf of the US Aluminum Industry, a Kelley Drye team has filed a series of unfair trade cases against imports of aluminum foil from five countries. The Kelley Drye team includes partners John Herrmann, Paul C. Rosenthal, Alan Luberda, and senior associate Joshua Morey. The petitions, filed concurrently with the US Department of Commerce and the US International Trade Commission, were filed for relief in response to large and rapidly increasing volumes of low-priced imports from the subject countries that have injured US producers.

The countries named in the filings include: Armenia, Brazil, Oman, Russia, and Turkey.

Click here to read the full story in Steelguru