

Kelley Drye & Warren LLP Announces New Partners

July 5, 2016

Law Firm Elects Two New Partners, Promotes Four to Special Counsel

Kelley Drye & Warren LLP has elected two new partners and promoted four to special counsel, effective July 1, 2016.

“This impressive group of new partners and special counsel have demonstrated the skills and contributions that embody the best of Kelley Drye and its unique culture,” said Kelley Drye's firm managing partner. “We congratulate our exceptional roster of rising talent who will advance our firm into the future, and thank them for enhancing our dynamic firm and outstanding client service.”

The new partners, and their practice groups, are:

James F. Jacobus, Real Estate

Jim focuses on real estate finance and the capital markets. He has represented U.S. and European investment banks, commercial banks and other institutional lenders in a wide variety of real estate finance transactions. Jim has extensive experience in the origination, securitization and syndication of commercial mortgage loans, mezzanine loans and construction loans and loan participations, syndications and other co-lender arrangements. Jim' experience includes the origination of mortgage loans secured by various classes of property including office, light industrial/warehouse, retail, hotel, casino, skilled nursing facilities, assisted living facilities, large pools of leased single family residential properties and multifamily. He also represents both borrowers and lenders in connection with workouts and restructurings of commercial real estate loans. Jim is a member of the New Jersey State Bar.

Andrew H. Lee, Tax

Andrew focuses on tax issues and has experience with a wide range of federal, state and local tax matters, including matters arising in connection with mergers and acquisitions, financings, matters involving affiliated groups of corporations, cross-border transactions and transfer pricing. Andrew regularly provides advice to telecommunications service providers, including in connection with the purchase and sale of such service providers. Andrew also frequently represents telecommunications service providers before state and local taxing authorities in connection with tax audits and appeals. He is a member of the New York and Massachusetts State Bars.

Victoria E. Anderson, Jennifer A. Bedoya, Jeffrey J. Hunter and Grace W. Kim were promoted to special counsel.