

Kelley Drye & Warren LLP Announces New Partners

July 2, 2018

Law Firm Elects Three New Partners, Promotes One to Special Counsel

Kelley Drye & Warren LLP has elected Jeffrey J. Hunter and Carol W. Sherman to partner and promoted one attorney to special counsel, effective July 1, 2018.

“Kelley Drye’s new partners and special counsel have consistently demonstrated excellent skills as well as a commitment to learning our clients’ business and industry,” said Kelley Drye’s firm managing partner. “I am proud to congratulate these exceptional attorneys who will continue to make tremendous contributions to our clients’ success and lead the firm into the future.”

The new Kelley Drye partners serve clients within the following areas of focus:

Jeff Hunter, Government Relations and Public Policy

Jeff focuses on federal and state campaign finance, lobbying disclosure and ethics rule compliance. He advises on Political Action Committee (PAC) creation, operation and reporting, as well as responding to formal complaint and informal agency reviews at the federal and state levels. Jeff’s practice has increasingly focused on Federal Election Commission, U.S. Department of Justice and state enforcement proceedings, as well as compliance with the Foreign Agents Registration Act (FARA) of 1938. Jeff is a member of the District of Columbia, New York, and Virginia State Bars.

Carol Sherman, Corporate

Carol represents issuers in initial and secondary public offerings, public and private issuers in private placements of equity and debentures, as well as public companies, and investors in SEC, NYSE and NASDAQ compliance and corporate governance matters. She has extensive experience with SEC reporting and compliance, equity and debt offerings, corporate governance and mergers and acquisitions. Carol is a member of the New York and Connecticut State Bars.

Brooke M. Ringel was promoted to special counsel.