

Kelley Drye & Warren LLP Announces New Special Counsel

July 2, 2018

Law Firm Promotes One Attorney to Special Counsel, Elects Three New Partners

Kelley Drye & Warren LLP has promoted Brooke M. Ringel to special counsel, effective July 1, 2018.

“Kelley Drye’s new partners and special counsel have consistently demonstrated excellent skills as well as a commitment to learning our clients’ business and industry,” said Kelley Drye’s firm managing partner. “I am proud to congratulate this exceptional attorney who will continue to make tremendous contributions to our clients’ success and lead the firm into the future.”

The new special counsel, and her practice group, is:

Brooke Ringel, International Trade

Brooke assists companies, associations and coalitions across a wide range of industries in navigating, effectively utilizing and leveraging U.S. trade laws and policies. She represents domestic industry in international trade remedies litigation against unfairly priced and subsidized foreign imports, particularly with respect to investigations and five-year sunset reviews before the U.S. International Trade Commission (ITC) and countervailing duty investigations before the U.S. Department of Commerce. Previously, Brooke served as associate vice president at the Pharmaceutical Research and Manufacturers of America (PhRMA), where she led the association’s work on global intellectual property advocacy and supported trade policy issues. Brooke is a member of the District of Columbia and Virginia State Bar.

Jeffrey J. Hunter and Carol W. Sherman were newly elected partner.