

Kelley Drye's International Trade Practice Earns Top Rankings in Chambers USA 2026 Across Multiple Categories

June 4, 2026

Kelley Drye & Warren LLP is pleased to announce that its International Trade practice has been recognized across multiple categories in the 2026 edition of Chambers USA: Band One for Export Controls & Economic Sanctions: Highly Regarded (Nationwide) and Band Two for Trade Remedies & Trade Policy (Nationwide).

Firm Chair Paul C. Rosenthal is ranked Band One by Chambers USA 2026 for International Trade: Trade Remedies & Trade Policy (Nationwide), a position he has held for several consecutive years.

Partner Eric R. McClafferty is ranked by Chambers USA 2026 for International Trade: Export Controls & Economic Sanctions: Highly Regarded (Nationwide), a position he has held in consecutive years.

Practice Chair John M. Herrmann is ranked by Chambers USA 2026 for International Trade: Trade Remedies & Trade Policy (Nationwide), a position he has held in consecutive years.

Brooke Ringel is ranked by Chambers USA 2026 for International Trade: Trade Remedies & Trade Policy (Nationwide), up from Up & Coming in 2025.

Kelley Drye's International Trade practice advises domestic and international clients on antidumping and countervailing duty proceedings, trade policy advocacy before the U.S. International Trade Commission and Department of Commerce, export controls compliance under EAR and ITAR, and economic sanctions matters administered by OFAC.

Click here for more information about Kelley Drye's International Trade practice. To learn more about the firm's full Chambers USA 2026 results, click here.