

Kelley Drye's William MacLeod Quoted in Global Competition Review

February 9, 2021

Privacy and digital platforms are a notable part of the policy focus in the ABA Antitrust Law Section's Presidential Transition Report. In a recent article in the Global Competition Review, partner William MacLeod is quoted stating that "this is an inflection point in antitrust, and where it will ultimately go will depend in large part on where the agencies take it."

You can read the full article here. (may require a subscription)