

LA Office hosts Asian American Bar Event

September 30, 2016

On September 1, 2016, Kelley Drye's LA office hosted the Asian Pacific American Women Lawyers Alliance and the Korean American Bar Association of Southern California at a cocktail reception. The event brought together clients of the firm that are members of various Asian American Bar Associations in Los Angeles, as well as prospective clients and other friends of the firm. The festive gathering was well attended and considered a huge success. Leading the event was Kelley Drye partner Steve Augustino. Director of diversity, Venetta Amory was also in attendance.
