

Law360 Features International Trade Attorneys as Counsel to Defendant-Intervenors in Garlic Anti-Dumping Case

July 27, 2016

Partners Michael Coursey, and John Herrmann, and associate Joshua R. Morey were mentioned in the Law360 article "CIT Judge Affirms Most Of Commerce's Chinese Garlic Results." A U.S. Court of International Trade judge upheld most of the Commerce Department's final results in an anti-dumping case involving fresh garlic from the People's Republic of China. CIT Judge Jane A. Restani sustained in part and remanded in part Commerce's 19th anti-dumping duty administrative review, mostly upholding the department's determination of tariffs on garlic in a consolidated challenge by a group of Chinese trading companies led by plaintiff Shenzhen Xinboda Industrial Co. Mr. Coursey, Mr. Herrmann, and Mr. Morey argued on the side of Commerce.
