

Law360 Lists International Trade Attorneys as Counsel to ArcelorMittal in Corrosion-Resistant Steel Petition

June 8, 2015

Partners Kathleen W. Cannon, Alan R. Lubberda, and Paul C. Rosenthal were mentioned in the Law360 article "ITC Kicks Off Probe Into Corrosion-Resistant Steel." The article covers the launching of a U.S. International Trade Commission (ITC) investigation into imports of corrosion-resistant steel products from five Asian and European nations. The ITC kicked off its anti-dumping and countervailing duty probe in response to a petition from U.S. Steel Corp., Nucor Corp., ArcelorMittal USA LLC and other producers alleging certain corrosion-resistant steel from China, India, Italy, South Korea and Taiwan is subsidized and sold in the U.S. at less than fair value. ArcelorMittal USA is represented by Ms. Cannon, Mr. Lubberda, and Mr. Rosenthal.
