

Law360 Lists International Trade Attorneys as Counsel to U.S. Steel Producers

February 3, 2017

Partners Kathleen Cannon and John Herrmann and special counsel Grace Kim were listed in the Law360 article "Commerce Slaps Chinese Stainless Steel With More Duties." The article notes that the Commerce Department's International Trade Agency recently wrapped up a yearlong investigation into stainless steel sheet and strip imports with a final finding that Chinese companies had dumped their products in the U.S. and had unfairly benefited from government subsidies. The ruling comes nearly a year after U.S. steel companies filed a complaint of dumping and unfair competition with the agency. The U.S. steel companies are represented by Ms. Cannon, Mr. Herrmann and Ms. Kim.
