

Law360 Lists International Trade Partners as Counsel to ArcelorMittal in Cold-Rolled Steel Case

August 18, 2015

Partners Kathleen W. Cannon, R. Alan Luberda and Paul C. Rosenthal are mentioned in the Law360 article “Commerce Scoops Up Sprawling Cold-Rolled Steel Trade Case.” The article explains that the U.S. Department of Commerce has responded to a petition filed at the end of July by AK Steel Corp., ArcelorMittal USA LLC and other domestic steel makers, initiating a litany of anti-dumping and countervailing duty probes aimed at determining whether foreign producers are selling their cold-rolled steel in the U.S. at unfairly low prices and receiving illegal government subsidies. ArcelorMittal is represented by Ms. Cannon, Mr. Luberda and Mr. Rosenthal.

To read the full article, please click here.