

Law360 Lists Partner David Evans as Member of Competition Editorial Advisory Board

February 26, 2016

Partner David Evans was recognized in the Law360 article “Law360 Competition Editorial Advisory Board.” Law360 is pleased to announce the formation of its 2016 Competition editorial advisory board. The purpose of the editorial advisory board is to get feedback on Law360's coverage and to gain insight from experts in the field on how best to shape future coverage. Mr. Evans has been named a member of the board. He does a variety of work including mergers and litigation, and has significant experience in high tech, automotive, retail and drug and medical device markets. Mr. Evans served on the council of the ABA Section of Antitrust Law and chaired the computer and internet committee for many years. He has also edited and co-authored a treatise on antitrust and privacy issues in e-commerce.

To read the full article, please click here.