

Law360 Lists Partners Michael J. Coursey and R. Alan Luberda as Counsel to Monterey Mushrooms

July 27, 2015

Partners Michael J. Coursey and R. Alan Luberda were mentioned in the Law360 article "ITC Tells Fed. Circ. To Deny Mushroom Co.'s Rehearing Bid." The article explains that the International Trade Commission (ITC) is urging the Federal Circuit to reject U.S. producer Giorgio Foods Inc.'s petition for rehearing in its bid to receive payouts of anti-dumping duties on imported mushrooms under a now-expired federal law. In April, after a 2-1 decision, the panel said Giorgio's responses to questions from the ITC at the beginning of the case indicated it either did not support or took no position on the probe, which disqualified the company from compensation, handing a win to the government and domestic producer Monterey Mushrooms Inc.

To read the full article, please click here. Access may require a subscription.