

Law360 Mentions International Trade Partners as Counsel to ArcelorMittal

December 16, 2015

Partners Kathleen W. Cannon, R. Alan Luberda, and Paul C. Rosenthal were mentioned in the Law360 article “DOC Hits Four Nations’ Cold-Rolled Steel With Early Duties.” The U.S. Department of Commerce recently unveiled its preliminary set of duties on cold-rolled steel products from China, Brazil, India and Russia after determining that the goods received unfair government subsidies. Commerce’s preliminary countervailing duty margins represent the latest step in a massive trade case launched earlier this year by AK Steel Corp., ArcelorMittal USA LLC and other domestic steelmakers who cried foul over the foreign imports. ArcelorMittal is represented by Ms. Cannon, Mr. Luberda, and Mr. Rosenthal.

To read the full article, please click here. Access may require a subscription.