

Law360 Mentions Partner Robert D. Bickford Jr. and Special Counsel James F. Jacobus as Counsel in $500 Million Real Estate Deal

May 3, 2016

Partner Robert D. Bickford Jr. and special counsel James F. Jacobus were mentioned as counsel to AXA and Met Life in the Law360 article “AXA, MetLife Loan $500M For NYC Office Tower.” On May 3, AXA and MetLife Inc. closed $500 Million in financing to a subsidiary of Paramount Group Inc. for 31 W. 52nd Street in Manhattan. The 29-story, 786,647-square-foot tower is located between Avenue of the Americas and Fifth Avenue.

Earlier this year, a Kelley Drye team lead by Mr. Bickford represented AXA in the sale of 787 Seventh Ave. in Manhattan to the California Public Employees’ Retirement System for more than $1.9 billion.

To read the full article, please click here. Access may require subscription.