

Law360 Notes Partner John M. Herrmann as Representation for Domestic Steelmaker Petitioners to U.S. Government

September 18, 2013

Law360 reports in an article titled "US Steel Cos., Workers Call For Anti-Dumping Probe" that Kelley Drye is representing AK Steel Corp., Allegheny Ludlum LLC and their workers in urging the U.S. government to investigate alleged dumping of grain-oriented electrical steel by seven European and Asian countries. Partner John M. Herrmann is part of the legal team for these domestic steel manufacturers that believe foreign producers are violating U.S. trade laws and World Trade Organization rules.
