

Law360 Quotes Partner David Evans on Acting Chair of FTC

January 27, 2017

Partner David Evans was quoted in the Law360 article "Ohlhausen's Notable Antitrust Dissents As FTC Commish." The article notes that President Donald Trump recently appointed Maureen K. Ohlhausen to be acting chair of the U.S. Federal Trade Commission, elevating to the agency's lead role a commissioner who has become known for writing some pithy dissents during her tenure. Mr. Evans notes that, "She's very serious and thoughtful...she's consistent with her viewpoints and is completely unafraid to express them even when the majority takes a different approach."

To read the full article, please click here. Access may require a subscription.